

Informed Dissent main webpage Link

Welcome to Informed Dissent.

This website provides resources to help you make informed decisions when protesting in the England and Wales.

If you do have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to email us at:
informeddissent@riseup.net

We are an group of volunteers, who have experience in activist legal support and so our information is generally applicable to different kinds of protest in England and Wales.

We try to include "XR Note: "wherever any information specifically applies to XR, due to the difference in legal support structure between XR and the wider activist legal support community.

Much love, rage and solidarity,

Informed Dissent
