

We want you! - Contributing to the Rebellion

The thing that makes Extinction Rebellion so exciting and rewarding to be part of is that we don't "just" turn up on the day of the protest, march down a road and then disappear again. Before, during and after our rebellions, there are 1,001 things that you can do to contribute to the rebellion. This rebellion won't organise itself, it's a joint effort. Any skill set is of use: Lorry driver, yoga instructor, mum - you name it!
